

Alice fires up the Willow Theatre!

Alice Firefly, from Llanidloes, and partner Paul, gave a spectacular performance at the Living Willow Theatre at Penlanole, near Rhayader, on Wednesday April 30.

The audience were first treated to the unique sound of Elin Cox, whose own brand of music has a distinct Celtic flavour. Elin was followed on stage in the barn by Semele Xerri, accompanied on guitar by Benjie Talbot.

Alice then led the audience through rings of fire to the main stage among the willow. Children are always told not to play with fire but Alice obviously didn't listen to this advice as she mesmerised the audience with her spectacular routine. April showers didn't deter Alice or the audience and Alice's fiery umbrella routine seemed very apt. For more information on upcoming events at the Living Willow Theatre, visit www.livingwillowtheatre.co.uk.

The County Times, Friday May 9 2008